PLATFORM

OF THE

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PARTY | PRINTING [Adopted at Cincinnati, June 15, 1876.] When, in the economy of Providence, this land was to be purged of human slavery, and when the strength of the government of the people by the people and for the people was to be demonstrated, the Republican party came into power. Its deeds have passed into history, and we look back to them with pride. Incited by their memories and high aims for the good of our country and mankind, and looking to the future with courage, hope and purpose, we, the representatives of the party, purpose, we, the representatives of the party, the National Convention assembled, make the following declaration of principles: 1. The United States of America is a nation, not a league. By the combined working of the national and State governments, under their respective constitutions, the rights of every citizen are secured at home and protected

2. The Republican party has preserved thes governments to the hundredth anniversary of the nation's birth, and they are now the embodiments of the great truths spoken at its cradle—"that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalicnable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that for the attainment of these ends governments have been instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." Until these truths are cheerfully obeyed, or, if need be, vigorously enforced, the work of the Republican party is unfinished.

3. The permanent pacification of the Southern section of the Union, and the complete are designed in the free enloyment. inalienable rights, among which are life, libprotection of its citizens in the free enjoymen of all their rights are duties to which the Re publican party stands sacredly pledged. The power to provide for the enforcement of the principles embodied in the recent constitu-tional amendments is in the Congress of the United States, and we declare it to be the solemn obligation of the Legislative and Executive Departments of the Government to put into immediate and vigorous use all their constitutional powers for removing any just causes of discontent on the part of any class and for securing to every American citizen complete liberty and exact equality in the exercise of all civil, political and private rights. To this end we imperatively demand a Congress and a Chief Executive whose courage and fidelity to these duties shall not falter until these results are placed beyond dispute 4. In the first act of Congress signed by President Grant, the National Government as-sumed to remove any doubts of its purpose to discharge its just obligation to public creditors and solemnly pledged its faith to make provi-sion, at the earliest practicable moment, for the redemption of United States notes in coin. Commercial prosperity, public morals and the national credit demand that this promise be fulfilled by a continuous and steady progress to specie payment.

5. Under the Constitution the President and heads of departments are to make nomina-tions for odice, the Senate is to advise and consent to the appointments, and the House of Representatives is to accuse and prosecute faithless officers. The best interests of the public service demand that these distinctions be respected, and that Senators and Represen-tatives, who may be judges and accusers, tatives, who may be judges and accusers, should not dictate appointments to office. The invariable rule for appointments should have reference to the honesty, fidelity and capacity of the appointees, preferring friends of the party in power for places where harmony and vigor of administration require its policy to be represented, but permitting all others to be filled by persons selected with sole reference to the military of the property of to the efficiency of the public service and the right of all citizens to share in the honor of rendering faithful service to their country. 6. We rejoice in the quickened conscience of the people concerning political affairs, and will hold all public officers to a rigid responsibility, and engage that the prosecution and punish-ment of all who betray official trusts shall be speedy, thorough and unsparing.

7. The public school system of the several States is the bulwark of the American Republic, and, with a view to its security and permanents. mence, we recommend an amendment to the Constitution of the United States forbidding the application of any public funds or prop-erty for the benefit of any schools or institutions under sectarian schools. 8. The revenue necessary for the current ex-penditures and the obligation of the public debt must be largely derived from duties on importations, which, so far as possible, should be adjusted to promote the interest of Ameri-can labor and advance the prosperity of the whole country.

9. We resilirm our opposition to further

9. We realist our opposition to further grants of the public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be devoted to free homes for the people.
10. It is the imperative duty of the Government to modify existing treaties with European Governments, that the same protection shall be afforded to the adopted American citizen that is eiten to the native hore, and the sall. that is given to the native born, and that all necessary laws should be passed to protect immigrants in the absence of power in the States for that purpose. 11. It is the immediate duty of Congress to investigate the effect of the immigration and importation of Mongolians upon the moral and material interests of the country. 12. The Republican party recognizes with an proval the substantial advances recently made toward the establishment of equal rights for women, by the many important amendments effected by Kepublican Legislatures in the laws which concern the personal and property relations of wives, mothers and widows, and by the appointment of women to the superintendence of education, charities and other hub lic trusts. The honest demands of this class of citizens for additional rights and privileges and immunities should be treated with respectful consideration.

13. The Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the Territories of the United States for their government. In the exercise of this power, it is the right and the duty of Congress to prohibit and extirpate in the Territories that relic of barbarism, polyg-amy, and we demand such legislation as shall secure this end and the supremacy of Ameri-can institutions in all the Territories. 14. The pledges which the nation has given o our soldiers and sailors must be fulfilled. The grateful people will always hold those who periled their lives for the country's pres-who periled their lives for the country's preservation in the kindest remembrance.

15. We sincerely deprecate all sectional feeling and tendencies. We therefore note with deep solicitude that the Democratic party counts as its chief hope of success on the electoral vote of a united South, secured through the efforts of those who were recently arrayed against the nation, we have the arrayed against the nation; we invoke the earnest attention of the country to the grave truth that a success thus achieved would re-open sectional strife and imperit the national henor and human rights.

16. We charge the Democratic party as being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with making its control of the House of Reprensentatives the recent foes; with reasserting and appliading in the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepented rebellion; with sending Union soldiers to the rear and promoting Confederate soldiers to the front; with deliberately proposing to repudiate the plighted faith of the Government; with being equally false and imiscelle upon the overshadowing financial question; with thwarting the ends of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation: with proving itself, through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House of Congress, utterly incompetent to administer the Government. We warn the country against trusting a party thus alike country against trusting a party thus alike unworthy, recreant and incapable.

17. The National Administration merits commendation for its honorable work in the management of our domestic and foreign affairs, and President Grant deserves the con-tinued and hearty gratitude of the American people for his patriotism and immense services in war and in peace.

I was removed to the hospital, and lay there ten weeks under the treatment of the best skill the hospital afforded, and no pen can describe the great suffering I endured. My key was swollen to nearly the size of my body, and all the surface of my knee turned black, and I was told that my knee was so diseased as to render it impossible to save my leg, and unless it was amputated soon I would die. When I first went to the hospital I raised such an objection to the amputation of my leg they consciuted to try one alternative, which was to cut out all the diseased flesh and replace It with sound flesh from the other leg. They did cut alx pieces from my well leg and place It where the diseased flesh had been removed, but the bone was so much diseased that this experiment proved a failure, and Cohen physicians were then a misory of the sum of the provided and one thing after another disposed of to pay doctors' bills until my family was in a destruct condition, with no hope for myself except relief by death. At this time Mr. Hill, the police officer in my street, called in to see me, and, after rendering pecuniary assistance to my family, brought some VECETINE for me, urging me to give it a faithful trial, saying when those two bottles were gone he would see that I had some more. Commercial. WASHINGTON WHOLESALE MARKET. WASHINGTON WHOLESALE MARKET, Flour.—Very little demand for any grade, and market rules very quiet and inactive.
Grain.—We note increased receipts by rail and canal, and choice samples meet with ready sale; market closes steady. Corn and Oats in botter demand.

market closes steady. Corn and Gats in bother demand.

Hay.—No change.

Butter.—Ecceipts since last week have diminished, but nearly all arrivals still continue to show the effects of the intense heat. The market is steady, with more inquiry, however, for uniform color and fine flaver, which will command good prices if in order on arrival.

Eggs.—The low rate to which they dropped, as reported last week, attracted a larger trade, and the market is now in a healthfor condition; we note an advance. Pack Keat (or Guinea) Eggs separately, and always state the number in each package.

Poultry.—The receipts have been larger this week, but all arrivals are readily placed within quotations.
Vegetables.—New Potatoes scarce and wanted.
Onions are in very large supply, with few sales vegetables.—Now Potatoes searce and wanted. Chions are in very large supply, with few sales even at the lowest quotations. Shippers will do well not to send any more until the market is cleared and a change in the same takes place. Fruits.—Green apples are in good demand, and meet with ready sale. The market has not fully opened on dried fruit; cherries and blackberries are the only kind as yet appearing. Operators are holding off watching the developments of other markets, which are in the same unsettled condition as ours.

are holding off watching the developments of other markets, which are in the same unsettled condition as ours.

Live Stock.—Cattle were very duil, and but few brought outside figures. Choice Lambs very active, bringing outside figures readily, but common once are duil. Calves are selling better this week.
